LIVELY DISCUSSION

OVER APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF OF POLICE.

Commissioners report regarding new appointment brought on a brisk debate last night.

There was a vigorous half-hour debate at last evening's session of the city council over the report of the commissioners that Staff-Sergeant Evans of Calgary had been appointed chief of police for the city. The aldermen held strong and divergent views on the matter, and did not hesitate to voice them.

Ald. Boyle took the floor first. He did not see how the council could do anything in the matter as the city charter gave the control of the police force entirely into the hands of the commissioners. The council, however, had the power to withhold the payment of salary to an appointee whom they did not approve. He moved that the appointment does not meet with the approval of the council, and that the council vote no salary to the new chief. He said he did so on two grounds, that the chief should have been chosen from local applicants. He was disappointed that the city had not sufficient local talent to fill civic appointments which he thought should, except in cases where experts were required, be made from residents of the city. If no local men suitable for the position apply for it, the commissioners should have sought a man among the citizens.

Ald. May seconded Ald. Boyle's motion and said he did so because he thought there were men on the force capable of filling the office. Otherwise he would not oppose an appointee from outside.

At the request of Ald. Griesbach the secretary read the list of applicants twenty in number. Twelve were from local men.

Mayor MacKenzie said that as the council were aware nothing had been done hastily in making the appointment. Each applicant had been carefully considered and frequently a man of whom the commissioners were favorably disposed had to be passed over, owing to further information.

Ald. Griesbach said that while the principle of bringing in an outside man was involved, there was a broader principle still in danger of violation—the principle of interfering with the commissioners' authority. He cited cases in which the commissioners had declined to take action when action should have been taken simply because they had been criticised frequently in the past and did not care to incur a reputation of the treatment. He would oppose the motion because he considered the greater danger to be that of creating in the minds of the commissioners an impression of timidity from the apprehension of criticism. The commissioners, not the council were responsible for the police force and should be sustained except in extreme cases.

Ald. McLeod thought this point well taken.

Ald. Clark thought the commissioners should be sustained unless radically wrong. He favored approving the report.

Ald. Picard regretted that he had to differ from the commissioners. He had understood that the report was a recommendation, but he found now that it was an appointment which the council were supposed to adopt. The public considered the aldermen responsible, and the report, he thought, should have been a recommendation.

Ald. May was surprised at Ald. Griesbach and more than surprised at Ald. Clark. He thought it the duty of aldermen to criticize the commissioners when they were in the wrong and would pursue that course while a member of the council.

Ald. Clark urged that the council were not in possession of all the facts in the case and should rely on the fuller information of the commissioners.

Ald. Boyle was surprised at the stand of some of the aldermen and took the view of Alderman Picard that the council would be held responsible for the appointment.

Mayor MacKenzie said the new chief was well acquainted in Edmonton. The commissioners had not depended entirely on written recommendations, but had made inquiries also and selected the man they thought would best fulfill the duties. It was not absolutely necessary, to ask the council for endorsement as the charter laid the responsibility on the commissioners. The aldermen were mistaken in thinking they were responsible directly for the appointments. The commissioners were directly responsible and the council were responsible to the public for the doings of the commissioners. He proposed to discharge the duties of commissioner to the best of his judgment, and when he was unduly interfered with in doing so, would quit the job.

Ald. Griesbach was ready to share the responsibility in this particular case.

Ald. McLeod had made inquiries and found Staff-Sergeant Evans well known in the city and highly recommended. He was disappointed that a local man had not received the appointment, but was satisfied the commissioners had gone into the matter carefully and he thought they took the manly course in recommending an outside man if they thought him the best applicant. He thought some of the aldermen were trying to work up popularity rather than to manage civic affairs. If the commissioners were turned down frequently their usefulness would be destroyed.

Ald. Picard insisted that the council had the right of an employer to criticize. He was not looking for popularity. There was a largely signed petition on the table regarding this matter which should not be ignored.

If in order, he would move in amendment that Const. Tidbury be appointed chief.

The motion was ruled out of order.

Ald. Boyle thought the explanation of the mayor why this particular applicant had been chosen was not satisfactory. He was proceeding to deal with other points in the case when the mayor announced that he would have to close the debate as it had already lasted considerable time.

Ald. Boyle moved an adjournment and speaking to this urged that the question be left open until a meeting of the full council.

The motion to adjourn was lost. An amendment to Ald. Boyle's motion moved by Ald. Clark "That this report be adopted," was voted on and resulted in a deadlock: For—Ald. Clark, McLeod and Griesbach; against—Ald. Boyle, May and Picard. The mayor declared the amendment carried.

EDMONTON AGAIN ATTACKED.

Under the semblance of a criticism of the Federal Government and the appointment of the Minister of the Interior the Toronto Saturday Night in a recent issue made the following malicious attack upon Edmonton:—

"The population of this constituency is very largely made up of French, French Half-Breeds, Galicians and others not of the Anglo-Saxon race. The greater majority in fact, are those who would naturally favor separate schools — the schools which, under the authority of the Autonomy Act they will have established and maintained at public expense, forever. This condition is enough to make Mr. Oliver's election assured—but there are other reasons. Edmonton is in a very unenviable financial condition. The value of real estate is regrettably low. Business is slack. The business men of the town are anything but cheerful. They would endorse almost any scheme that would ultimately boom their town. Naturally the farmers of the surrounding districts desire to see Edmonton a great city. The surest way to make it a great city is to have it made the capital of the new Province of Alberta. The surest way to give it prestige and to increase its chances of becoming the permanent capital is to elect the new Minister of the Interior when he appeals to his constituents. Not only Frank Oliver, who is popular in his constituency, but anyone possessing an opportunity to give the town a lift, would not only be sure of an election, but would find it impossible to meet defeat. Edmonton has also the distinction of being dominated by the largest French trading company in France a company with several times the capital of the great Hudson's Bay Company. This company has boasted that it will spend millions, if necessary, to secure control of the trade of that section of the country. Doubtless a part of that million would be available in case of need, to win the constituency for the Government—and win Government favor for the company."

To this the Secretary of the Edmonton Board of Trade replied as follows:—

To Editor, Saturday Night, Toronto.

Sir:—My attention has been called to the first paragraph in "Saturday Night" of April 15th, and some of the statements therein seem to me to call for prompt and emphatic contradiction. The whole paragraph is exceedingly funny to one conversant with the facts; though it is not expected that the humorous side will appear to our good friends in the east, who can hardly be expected to be generally much better informed as to local conditions here than is "Saturday Night." There is danger that the whole paragraph may be taken seriously, and therefore some of your mis-statements can hardly be allowed to pass unnoticed. With your reference to politics, I have nothing to do; but I would like to correct misapprehension on matters of business. For instance, I read

"Edmonton is in a very unenviable financial condition. The value of real estate is regrettably low. Business is slack. The business men of the town are anything but cheerful."

I have no idea as to the source of your information, but I wish to state that you have been very seriously mis-informed as to the business conditions prevailing in this city. As I have for five years been associated with the business interests of Edmonton, and in my official capacity am in close touch with the business men of the city, my statements in these matters will perhaps carry some weight. The business men of the town, so far from being "anything but cheerful," are well pleased with the progress they are making—as they have reason to be—and are optimistic in the extreme as to the immediate future. So far from the value of real estate being "regrettably low" it might with much more truth be said to be "regrettably high." At least that is the way it appears to parties who have to buy; though considering the great prospects ahead of Edmonton and the certainty of immediate development, property is still probably cheap. I venture to say that in no town on the continent of America, with the population of Edmonton—about 8,000, exclusive of the contiguous town of Strathcona—and in no city in eastern Canada of at least twice that population, does property sell at as high a figure as in the city of Edmonton today. And the figures are not boom prices paid by speculators on margin, but are prices obtained from hard-headed business men familiar with the situation, who want the property to build on, most of the higher priced deals being for cash. To mention a few specific instances:—Over a year ago, when values generally were much lower than at the present, such a conservative institution as the Bank of Montreal paid $200 a foot frontage for a lot on Jasper avenue which is over two blocks from the post office, and a full block west of the then recognized business centre of the town. Recently the Merchants Bank has bought a lot still further west, at a figure said to have been slightly higher. The National Trust Company recently paid $20,000 for 30 feet of Jasper avenue frontage, carrying a small frame building worth not more than $1500. The greater part of Jasper avenue frontage, anywhere near the business centre, is not for sale; and none that is on the market, anywhere within five or six blocks, could be bought for less than about $300 a foot.

EDMONTON AGAIN ATTACKED.

Residential property brings proportionately as good figures. Several residential lots have recently changed hands at $20 a foot front; and out fifteen blocks from the business centre of the city, 40-foot lots are selling at from $300 to $400, generally to people who want to build on them.

As to business being slack, I may say that I never heard of any western town that amounts to anything, that had all the business it wanted. But I will say, and without fear of contradiction, that there is not another town in the Dominion of Canada, with a population as small as that of Edmonton, where there is as much business done; and I doubt if the fair province of Ontario contains any two towns of similar population where business combined would aggregate as much as that of Edmonton. It is probable that there is no other town in Canada of not more than 20,000 people, that unloads in a year as many cars of merchandise as do Edmonton and Strathcona, where in such matters, must be considered together. Outgoing freight is no criterion for the reason that such a large proportion of our productions find their market in the great interior, which is supplied from Edmonton by team or boat.

Again, it is a fairly safe statement that no city in Canada with less than about 10,000 population, has finer stores, banking offices, schools, etc., than has Edmonton. Over $800,000 was spent in buildings last year, and this figure is likely to be largely increased. This does not look as if our business men were deep in the blues. The Hudson's Bay Company, usually considered one of the most cautious and conservative business organizations in the world, is just completing a store building, which has cost, with fittings, not far short of $100,000. McDougall & Scott, one of the leading mercantile firms in Western Canada, and men of large wealth, who made every dollar they own right here in Edmonton, have spent on the way to completion a four-story brick block with cut stone front, which would be a decided credit to King street, Toronto, as would several other recent Edmonton buildings.

One more correction, and I have done, I read Edmonton has also the "distinction of being dominated by the largest French trading company in France." * * * This company has boasted that it will spend "a million, if necessary, to secure control of that section of the country. Doubtless a part of that million would be available in case of need, to win the constituency for the Government—and to win Government favor for the company." Will "Saturday Night" explain why a place where business conditions are so unsatisfactory as you report them to be in Edmonton, should attract a company with such resources? And also, if the business of Edmonton is in such a bad way why on earth should anybody want to secure a share of it? Furthermore, the business men of this city are naturally interested to know why any journal with pretensions to respectability, should sling a gratuitous insult at one who occupies a very high position as a man of scrupulous personal and business integrity, among a business community noted for the high standing of its business men—particularly when you can have no possible quarrel with the gentleman in question. Permit me to say—this is fact, not opinion—that the man who controls the millions referred to is a young gentleman of unassuming personality, who attends closely to business and has gained a high place among his fellow business men as a man of the very highest type of business integrity, and entirely above suspicion of any such conduct as your insinuations attributed to him. Furthermore, he takes no interest in politics, other than such as it is the duty of every good citizen to take; and I doubt if it is known to many of the men who are brought into daily contact with him, what his political views are.

Edmonton is largely dependent on outside capital for further development, practically all local capital being fully and profitably employed by the great expansion in all lines of business and industries. Therefore, such mis-statements as "Saturday Night" has made—no doubt in good faith, so far as the editor is concerned—going into such large circulation among the very class of people whom we are anxious to interest, is likely, if uncontradicted, to work harm to the material interests of the city. I must therefore ask you, as a matter of fairness and justice, to be good enough to give to this correction the same prominence and publicity that you gave to the mis-statements complained of.

Yours truly,
F. T. FISHER,
Secretary, Edmonton Board of Trade.

SASKATCHEWAN AVENUE DIVERSION

This question was introduced at the preceding meeting by a report from the commissioners recommending the purchase of the necessary property to divert the avenue, and avoid a heavy cutting on the Hudson Bay flat. The estimated cost of the cutting was $8,000.

The mayor urged expedition to avoid delaying the sewer extension.

Ald. May objected to discussing the alternative plan again as it had been decided to make the diversion some time since.

The secretary read a former report from the commissioners estimating the cost of grading the diversion at $3,000.

The report was adopted.

THE CHIEF OF POLICE

The report of the commissioners that Staff Sergeant Evans had been appointed chief of police brought an animated discussion at the close of which the appointment was confirmed, the mayor breaking a deadlock by his casting vote.

SIDEWALKS

A report was also adopted accepting the tender of R. Whitehead for installation of the Saskatchewan avenue sewer.

HAULTAIN CHALLENGED

TO OPEN WESTERN CONSTITUENCIES.

Territorial Premier Invited to Test Territorial Feeling by Filling Vacant Seats in Local House.

Ottawa, April 28.—Four Liberals, Black and Hanes, of Nova Scotia, Marten of Wellington, and Sinclair, Guyser, N.S., and one Conservative, Elson, of Middlesex, spoke on the autonomy bills today. Adamson made a good speech. He spoke, strongly in favor of the educational clause. He had educated his family in the Northwest schools, which were the best in Canada. He referred to Mr. Oliver's triumphant return by nomination at Edmonton, and asked Mr. Haultain to open the seven unrepresented constituencies in the Northwest if he desired to get the opinion of the West on the subject.

VALUABLE TIMBER DESTROYED.

John Walter returned on Thursday from the timber limits up the river, where he went several days since to look after the logs taken out during the winter. Fires have been raging for several weeks in the timber on both sides of the river and an immense amount of valuable standing timber has been destroyed. In addition three of Fraser's camps were burned out and it is feared Rickard's camp has been burned. Mr. Walter did not know if he had lost any logs yet, but was doubtful of 25000 which were left over from last season. As the fires had approached quite near the log dumps along the river it is probable the drive will be begun early next week, notwithstanding the low water in the river.

THE LATEST.

This from the Mail and Empire:

"One fact made prominent in the discussion is the circumstances that the people most concerned in the legislation have not asked for it, and do not want it. This situation is so well understood that the Government declines to face the electors with the educational clause as an issue, and chooses its new Minister of the Interior, not from a constituency which can pronounce upon them, but from a part of the West that is influenced politically by a vote that is largely foreign. The adverse opinion of the people who are to live under the legislation ought, in a free state and under modern conditions to render the passage of the clauses impossible. In no other case have constitutional limitations been placed upon any Canadian province without the consent of the people. To impose such restrictions, unasked, and in face of protests from the West is to make coercion doubly coercive. While the wishes of the West ought to be considered, the interests of the minority, in whose behalf the coercive legislation is alleged to be designed, should not be lost sight of. Little room there is for doubt that this legislation is, to the knowledge of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, what, in the language of the street is termed 'a gold brick,' served upon his co-revolutionists. The separate schools are made compulsory on paper; but the compulsion cannot be enforced. As a matter of fact, the worst feature of the coercive provisions is the danger that they will provoke in the Federal arena a religious agitation which, but for this religion, would never be thought of. Under normal conditions, and without force, the Western provinces would most likely continue the present school arrangements suiting it to the needs of their own people, and endeavoring to be not only just, but generous to all shades of opinion. But with the resort to force there is a different incentive to the Greenways and Siffons of a few years hence to wipe out the concessions and to bring on a conflict with the Federal Government upon the subject. Nothing is more conducive to the vitality of a provincial Administration in the West than a struggle with Ottawa, and upon no question can a provincial Government fight Ottawa with greater advantage than upon education. The coercive provisions thus tend to produce a quarrel as a consequence of which such concessions as are now made to the Separate school idea may disappear. They are practically a standing challenge to the West to wipe out privileges which, were the challenge not issued, would not be touched."

Discredited in its attempt to persuade the Protestants of Ontario that the Federal Government is handing the North West Territories over body and soul to the Roman Catholics the Mail and Empire takes a new start and tries to persuade the Roman Catholics of Quebec that the Federal Government is "gold bricking" them.

There is a method in this madness all the same. The article quoted above appeared in the Mail and Empire a few days after the Bishop of Three Rivers had announced his dissatisfaction with the school clauses, and may be taken as nothing more nor less than an invitation to the Roman Catholics of Quebec to join the Mail and Empire in opposing the Government on the ground that the bills do not confer any actual privileges on the Roman Catholics of the North West Territories.

TYPE OF HORSE

REQUIRED FOR BRITISH ARMY

Canada on Trial as to Ability to Supply
Horses for Remount Purposes

Ottawa, April 22.—A great deal of misunderstanding having arisen concerning the objects of the Imperial Government in sending officers to this country to purchase horses, or rather to see if horses suitable for the British Army can be purchased, the following short summary of the position should prove of value. This statement may be regarded as absolutely correct and authoritative.

First and foremost, the demands of the British Army in peace time can be easily met within the four corners of the United Kingdom. That demand is not large, and may be taken as a normal one of 2,500 horses annually, rising in certain years to possibly 3,500 of all kinds and classes.

There is an idea abroad, and certain Ministers and statesmen in this country have brought it forward and may be considered responsible for it, that if the Imperial Government will purchase annually a fixed number of horses, say from 300 to 500, in Canada, a great stimulus will be given to horse breeding generally, and to the breeding of the military type of horse in particular. Failing in with this idea, the Imperial authorities are anxious to put it to the test, and, for reasons of their own, they fully recognize the advantage that will accrue to the Empire from the opening up of a large and limitless market that can be drawn upon to meet the immense demand that will be created in time of war. The real question then that has now to be answered by the practical experiment of purchase during the next few months, is, can suitable horses be produced, and at an average price that will, when the horses are landed in England, favorably compare with that paid for remounts throughout Great Britain and Ireland?

The average price paid in England is an open secret; it is £40, or say $500. The cost of freight and insurance will certainly not exceed another $50, leaving $550, or possibly slightly more, to be paid for the animals selected on the spot. A higher price can be paid for horses of special color and type, such as horses suitable for officers' charges and Household Cavalry. It is therefore obvious that Canada is on its trial as to its ability to supply a suitable horse for Army purposes. It is, further, of more importance to Canada than to anyone else that, as the horses purchased will be regarded in England, as well as in this country, as typical, it will be in every way a great misfortune if those sent home are of a class and quality that will engender a belief that the Canadian horse is of an inferior type. Such a belief will probably do more harm to Canadian horse breeding and the reputation of Canadian horses than anything else.

Two classes of horses are to be bought—

1st. Riding horses, fit for heavy and light cavalry, from say 15 to 15 3-4 hands.

2nd. Draught horses fit for being driven postillion, with Horse and Field Artillery. The latter must not be less than 15 3-4 hands, 15 1-2 to 15 3-4 hands in height, strong, active and with good shoulders to enable them to move fast and even to gallop when required, the age should be from 4 off to 6 years. In all cases the British Government require horses with short backs, good shoulders, plenty of bone and distinct evidence of quality.

In the case of riding horses, those with a near cross of the Thoroughbred are most likely to take the eye of the Inspecting Officers, and are in possession of detailed specifications, showing the exact type and qualifications of the horses required.

We Paid $100,000

For Ligozone. Yet We Give You a 50c. Bottle Free.

We paid $100,000 for the American rights to Ligozone; the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery. We did this after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, in this country and others. We cured all kinds of germ diseases with it—thousands of the most difficult cases obtainable. We proved that in germ troubles it always accomplishes what medicine cannot do. Now we ask you to try it—try it at our expense. Test it as we did; see what it does. Then you will use it always, as we do, and as millions of others do. You will use it, not only to get well, but to keep well. And it will save nearly all of your sickness.

Kills Inside Germs.

Ligozone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. This process has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research. The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill.

The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Ligozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable matter.

There lies the great value of Ligozone. It is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease. It is this fact that gives Ligozone its worth to humanity. And that worth is so great that we have spent over one million dollars to supply the first bottle free to each sick one we learned of.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Ligozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

—O. Bishopp and W. Richardson have been in Fort Saskatchewan for several days past. On Thursday evening they addressed the council there relative to supplying electric light and power to that town. The proposal outlined by them was to establish a plant near Morinville where a good seam of coal has been found and to transmit power to Morinville, Fort Saskatchewan and any other towns desiring to procure it.

—Battleford Herald: Last Saturday afternoon a suit named Law, belonging to a trading outfit travelling on the north side of the Saskatchewan, was brought over and taken to the hospital with a fractured skull. Three doctors were quickly summoned and the man operated on and he is now doing very well. No one knows how the accident happened, as no one saw him from the time he jumped on an empty wagon to ride until he was seen lying unconscious by the side of the road. The injured man wintered at Francis's farm in charge of McArthur's horses and was known as "Scotty."

—Regina Standard: What formerly was the Regina Planning Mill & Supply Co., has been recently bought out by the Cushing Brothers Co. Limited, and promises to be, in the near future one of the most prosperous industries in the city. The old plant has been changed to suit the new conditions and extended by the addition of many new wood working machines. Alterations to buildings have been made by the building of an extension 50 x 34 feet to the north side of the present factory, a new lumber shed 80 x 32 feet, and a new dry kiln with the most modern equipment. The expansion of the Cushing Bros. Co.'s business has been phenomenal and this up-to-date method will command a bright future for them in Regina.

Synopsis of Regulations for Disposal of Minerals on Dominion Lands in Manitoba, the North-West Territories and the Yukon Territory.

Coal.—Coal lands may be purchased at $10 per acre for soft and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 320 acres can be acquired by one individual or company. Royalty at the rate of 10 cents per ton of 2800 pounds shall be collected on the gross output.

Quartz.—Persons of eighteen years and over and joint stock companies holding "free miners" certificates may obtain entry for mining location. A free miner's certificate is granted for one or more years, not exceeding five, upon payment in advance of $7.50 per annum for an individual, and from $50 to $100 per annum for a company, according to capital.

A free miner, having discovered mineral in place, may locate a claim 1500 by 1500 feet by marking out the same with two legal posts bearing location notices, one at each end of the line of the location. The claim may be recorded within fifteen days if located within ten miles of a mining recorder's office, one additional day allowed for every additional ten miles or fractions. The fee for recording a claim is $5.00.

At least $100 must be expended on the claim each year or paid to the mining recorder in lieu thereof. When $500 has been expended or paid the locator may, upon having a survey made, and upon complying with other requirements purchase the land at $100 per acre.

Permission may be granted by the Minister of the Interior to locate claims containing iron, mica, asbestos, copper, in the Yukon Territory, at an area not exceeding 160 acres.

The patent for a mining location shall provide for the payment of royalty on the sales not exceeding five per cent.

Placer Mining, Manitoba and the N. W. T., excepting the Yukon Territory.—Placer mining claims are generally 100 feet square, entry fee $5.00, renewable yearly. On the North Saskatchewan river claims for either bar or beach, the former being 100 feet long, and extending between high and low water mark. The latter includes bar diggings but extends back to the base of the hill or bank, but not exceeding 1,000 feet. Where stream power is used, claims 200 feet wide may be obtained.

Dredging in the rivers of Manitoba and the N. W. T., excepting the Yukon Territory.—A free miner may obtain only two leases of five miles each, for a term of twenty years, renewable in the discretion of the Minister of the Interior.

The lessee's right is confined to the submerged bed or bars of the river below low water mark, and subject to the rights of all persons who have or who may receive entries for bar diggings on bench claims, except in the Saskatchewan river, where the lessee may dredge to high water mark, on each alternate leasehold.

The lessee shall have a dredge in operation within one season from the date of the lease for each five miles, but where a person or company has obtained more than one lease, one dredge for each fifteen miles or fraction, will be sufficient. Rental $10 per annum for each mile of the river leased. Royalty at the rate of two and a half per cent. collected on the output after it exceeds $10,000.

Dredging in the Yukon Territory.—Six leases of five miles each may be granted to a free miner for a term of twenty years, also renewable.

The lessee's right is confined to the submerged bed or bars in the river below low water mark, that boundary to be fixed by his position on the first day of August in the year of the date of the lease.

The lessee shall have one dredge in operation within two years from the date of the lease, and one dredge for each five miles within six years from such date. Rental, $100 per mile for first year, and $10 per mile for each subsequent year. Royalty same as placer mining.

Placer Mining in the Yukon Territory.—Creek, gulch, river and hill claims shall not exceed 250 feet in length measured on the base line or general direction of the creek or gulch, the width being from 1,000 to 2,000 feet. All other placer claims shall be 200 feet square.

Claims are marked by two legal posts, one at each end, bearing notices. Entry must be obtained within ten days. If the claim is within ten miles of a mining recorder's office, one extra day allowed for each additional ten miles or fraction.

The person or company staking a claim must hold a free miner's certificate.

The discoverer of a new mine is entitled to a claim of 1,000 feet in length, and if the party consists of two, 1,500 feet altogether, on the output of which no royalty shall be charged, the rest of the party ordinary claims only.

Entry fee, $10. Royalty at the rate of two and one-half per cent. on the value of the gold shipped from the Yukon Territory to be paid to the Comptroller.

No free miner shall receive a grant of more than one mining claim on each separate river, creek or gulch, but the same miner may hold any number of claims by purchase, and free miners may work their claims in particular by filing notices and abandoning and another obtained on the same creek, gulch or river by giving notice and paying a fee.

Work must be done on a claim each year to the value of at least $200.

A certificate that work has been done must be obtained. If not, the claim shall be deemed abandoned, and open to occupation and entry by a free miner.

The boundaries of a claim may be defined absolutely by having a survey made, and publishing notice in the Yukon Official Gazette.

Hydraulic Mining, Yukon Territory.—Locations suitable for hydraulic mining, having a frontage of from one to five miles, and a depth of one mile or more, may be leased for two
